

ABOUT THE PODCAST

The Upwardly Dependent Podcast exists to be a safe space to wrestle with challenging topics in modern Christianity. Host, Dr. Lauren Pinkston, invites listeners into her honest and vulnerable conversations with guests from all over the globe. Season one was focused on ethical evangelism: Is Jesus even good news? And if so, how do we share our faith authentically across cultures? Season two will address adoption and orphan care. Join us as we dive deeper into these important conversations.

ABOUT THE NETWORK

The Kindred Exchange Podcast Network hosts a variety of podcasts that explore missional topics through the lens of ethical impact. The network's podcasts are hosted by experienced thought leaders and practitioners who bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise to their conversations.
